Funeral of Mrs. John E. Ramage Held from Her Late Home in Prospect

At 2 o'clock Friday afternoon funeral services were held for Anna S. Hedler, beloved wife of John Ramage, Jr., from her late home, No. 330 Prospect street. The house was filled with the sorrowing relatives and friends, who came to pay their last respects to the deceased. Rev. Donald B. MacLane, pastor of Taffville Congregational church, conducted the services and a quartette composed of Mrs. Belle McNally, Mrs. Frank Waters, James Jackson and Rev. Donald MacLane sang Sometime We'll Understand, Asleep in Jesus, and The Christians' Gocdnight very impressively. The bearers were three brothers, Gustave, Karl and Christopher Hedler and a nephew, Karl Hedler. Mrs. Ramage passed away at the home of Ramage passed away at the home of her sister, Mrs. Alexander Ramage, who had tenderly cared for her in her last illness of nearly five months' duration, and which she bore with patience and Christian fortitude until the end. Less than two and onehalf years ago she was married to John Ramage, Jr., from her sister's home, and was laid away in the dress which had graced her as a bride. She was beloved by all who knew her, and will be sadly missed in the community where she made her home. The flowers were numerous and beautiful
